

NYCU AY2025/2026 Outbound Exchange Program (1st Intake)

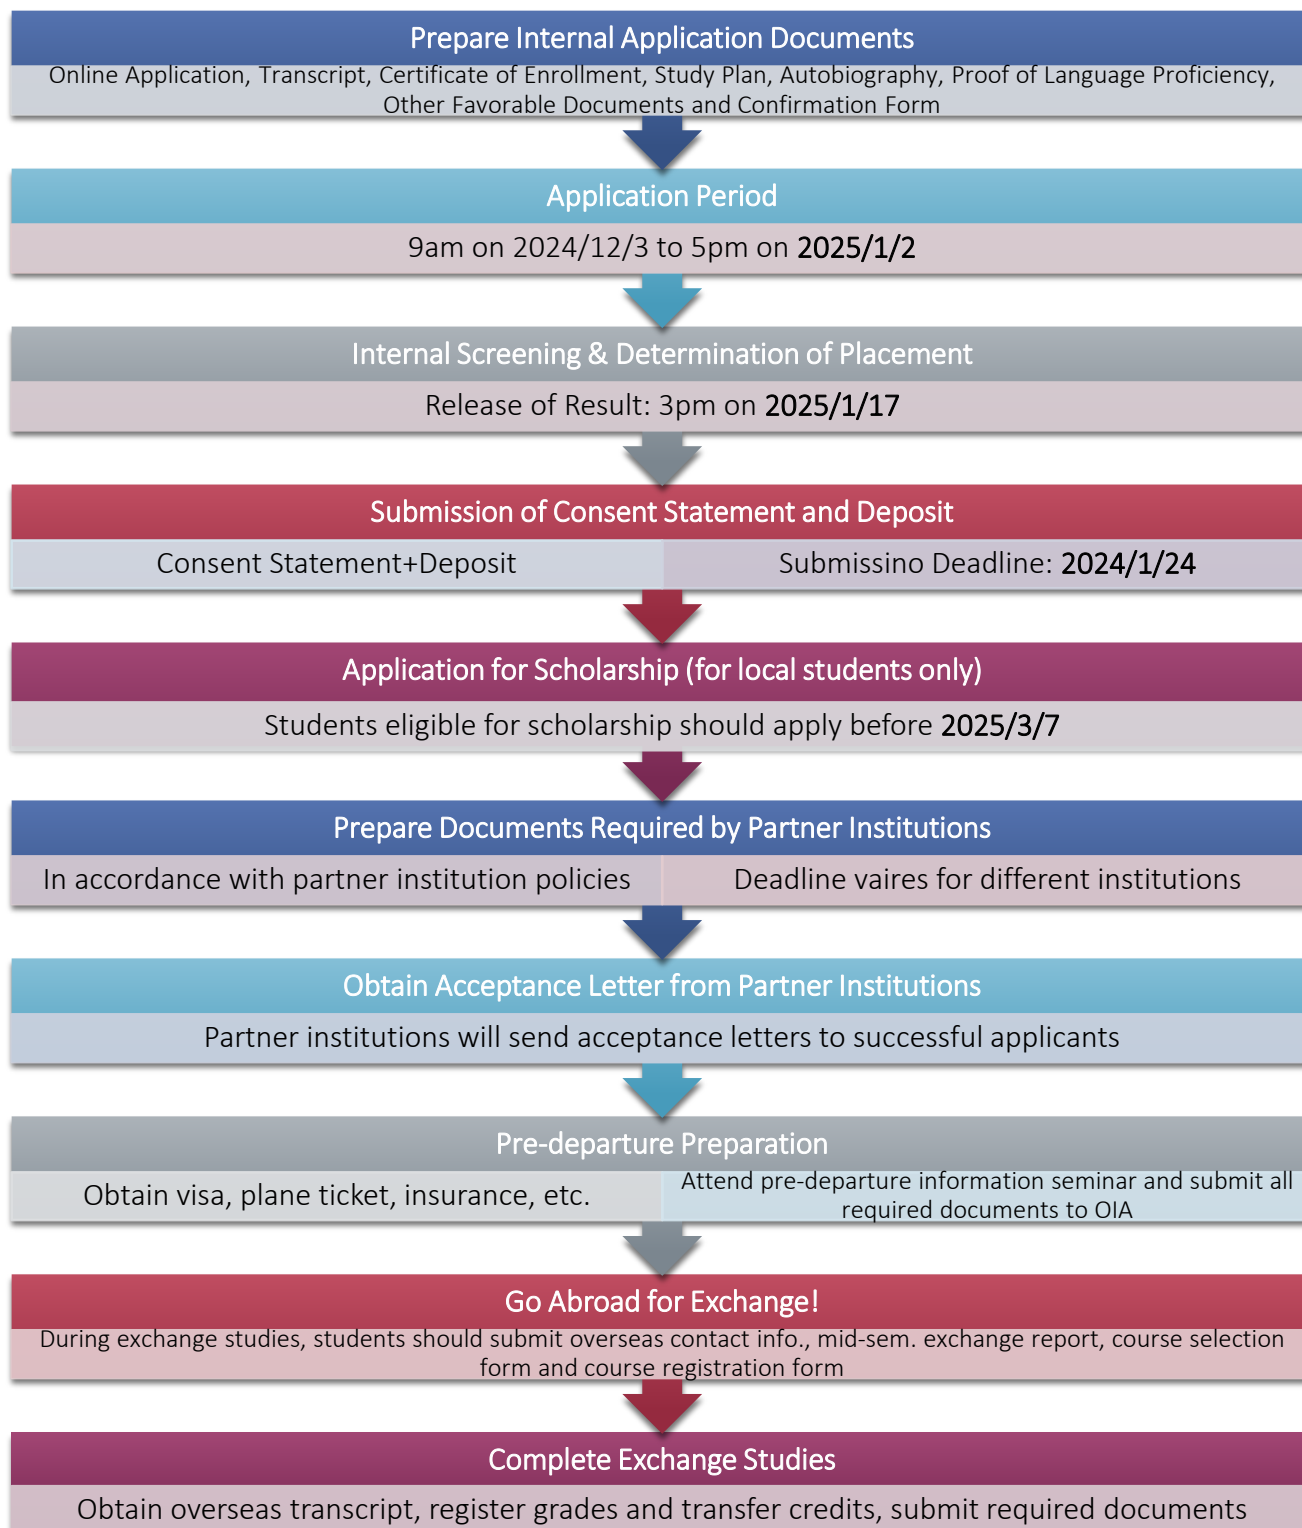

I. Purpose

To cultivate and expand the international vision of students, the National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University (NYCU) encourages students to go abroad for exchange studies at partner institutions.

II. Regulation

In accordance with the "Regulations for Applying for the International Exchange Programs at National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University."

III. Application & Exchange Procedures

IV. Eligibility

1. All enrolled students at NYCU may apply for exchange. The limitations regarding year of study, college, department, and institute depend on the exchange agreements with various sister universities. Relevant limitations are outlined in the pamphlets for annual exchange programs.
2. Eligible overseas students (including international students, overseas Taiwanese students, and students from mainland China) may also apply for exchange, although international students and overseas Taiwanese students may not apply for exchange at universities in their countries of origin. Overseas students receiving scholarships from the Ministry of Education, NYCU, or other government authorities may not receive scholarships during the exchange period. Only existing tuition reduction/waiver scholarship may be preserved.
3. Students planning to study in foreign countries or in Hong Kong or Macao, regardless of whether the sister institution has relevant regulations or not, should present foreign language examination scores: TOEFL iBT, IELTS, GEPT (both stages), TOEIC (including oral and written tests), or test scores of a third foreign language that are accepted by the host university. If the sister institution does have relevant regulations, the applicant must submit a foreign language score report that fulfills the requirements in order to choose that particular institution. Language test report should be submitted before the application deadline. Students who have not received the official test result can upload screenshot first (must include name of the student).
